The Senior Class Presents

THE 1953 ANTHOLITE

ST. ANTHONY HIGH SCHOOL

Detroit, Michigan

Dedication

Dear Heavenly Mother,

For twelve long years you have been our guiding star, our refuge in trouble . . . a Mother, tender, merciful, so understanding. Now we come to share our new experience with you; we are seniors, but that, too, shall soon cease to be—for we are graduates of 1953.

We will need you, Mother dear, when we turn to face our future. Aid us when we go forth to make our way in life. Assist us to become successful as your Son would have us be.

Bring our boys home safely after their service to our country. Make our parents' ambitions for us as little children find their realization now, in us. Wherever our paths may lead—in the service of your dear Son as religious, home-maker, or special career men and women—stay with us, our Queen, our Mother.

To you, dear Lady, we dedicate this, our Antholite. Our way of saying "thank you" is inadequate, we know, but, we know, too, that you will understand.

Your Seniors
Class of '53

Hymn To Mary

O Gem of God and Glory of our race!

Thy light has led me and thy beauty burned

Star-like before me when in trackless gloom

My stumbling feet towards that City turned.

Classes

Queen of all saints

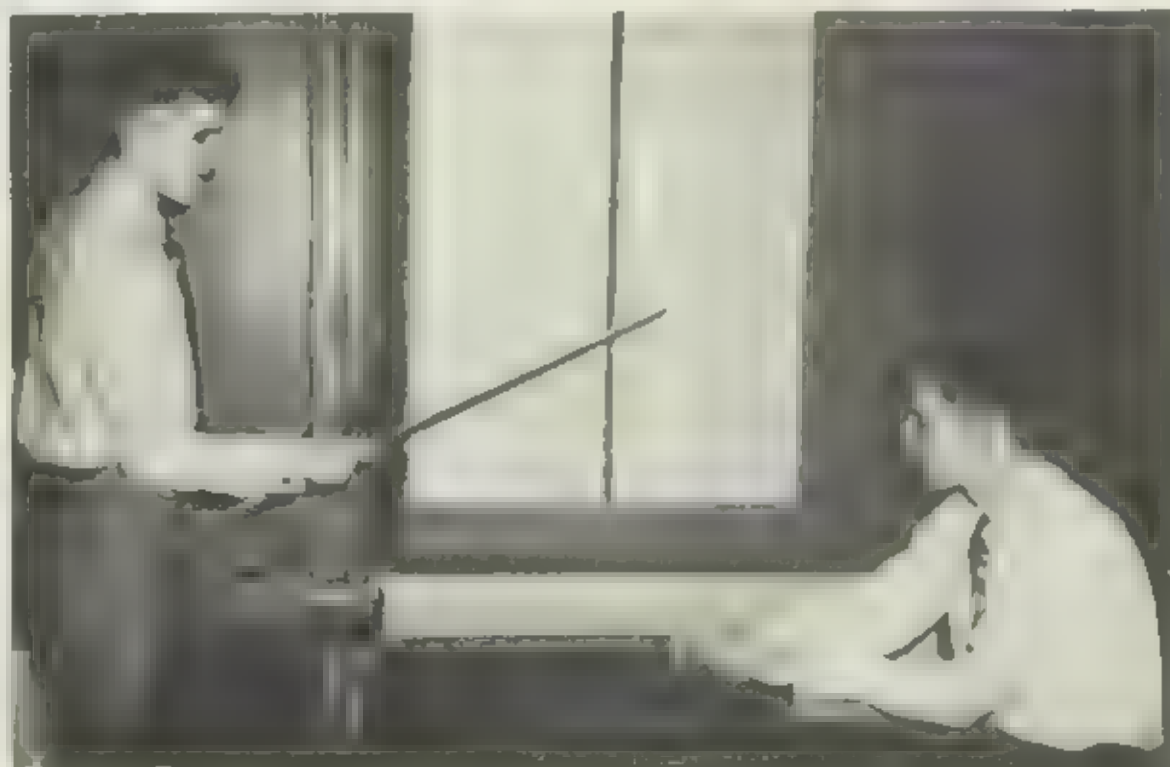

"How'll we ever get all this learned" sigh these weary but smiling Freshies—Mary Ann Klein, Sharon Springer, Dennis Loeb, Maxine Anderson, and Anthony Peters.

Here's a case where you really can hold a heart in your hand . . . Bob DeJonckheere and Joe Wiebek proceed to prove this to Marceline Pier and Norman Wozny.

Tangents, secants, arts, radii . . . all of it's "clear as mud" q. e. d. says John Habel to perplexed Richard Golombek.

Freshmen Council: (Standing) Mebba Amicarelli, Ed Roth, Carol Kurkowski, Robert Diber, Joe Rainoldi, Meta Bretz, and Harvey Opaleski. (Seated) Sister M. Melora, Helen Sunderlik, Angelo Magnoli, Betty Lindemoen, Doris DeClaire, and Paul Fuller.

Eileen Daudlin and Maureen Diviney unconcernedly bang away at an assignment while Ernie Kaschalk explains to Augie Darga just how magic a magic margin can be.

Stephen Schneider and Pat VandePutte are intrigued by Mrs. Hackman's demonstration of static electricity with fur, pith balls, and a hard rubber rod.

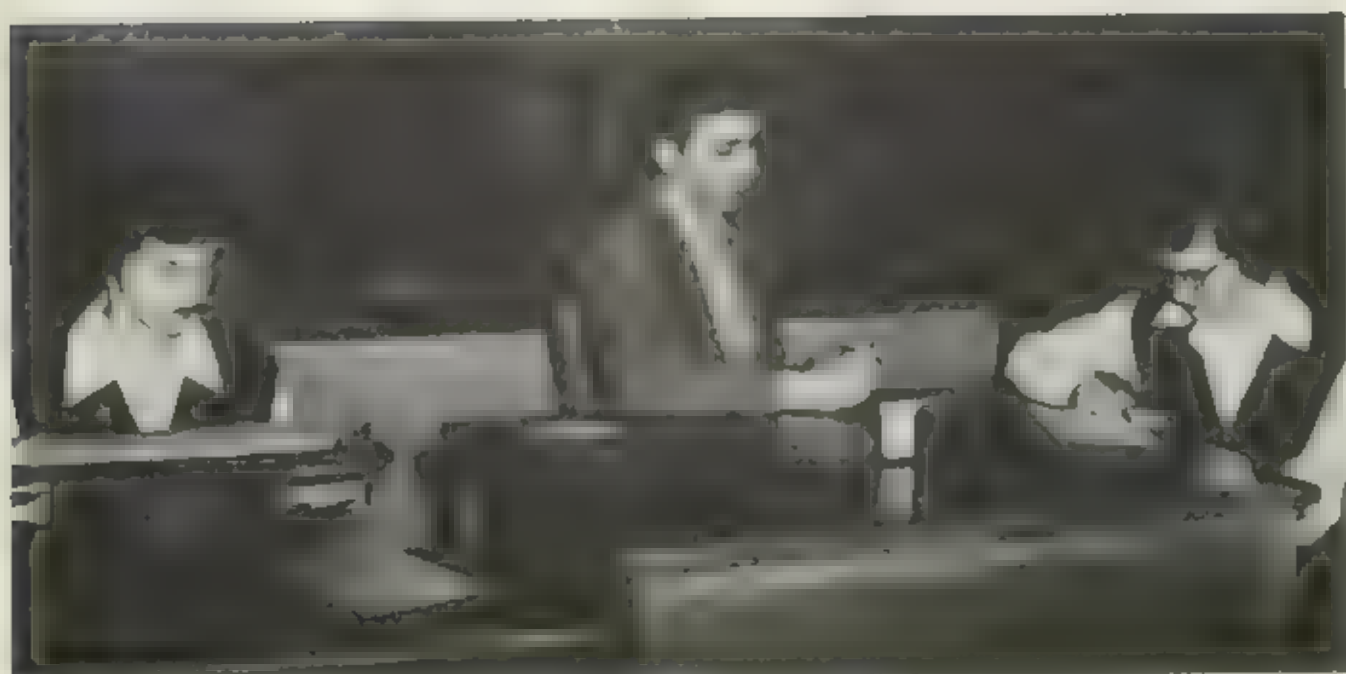

The Spring Concert means special drilling for Don Montie and Don Dimmer with Sister Mary Carl supervising; Carolyn Ruel accompanies them at the piano.

Caught in the act by our special photographer — Working — actually working are Tony Stefani, Richard Coucke, Richard Ravetta, Richard Gajeski, and James Berger in a Drafting I class.

A busy but pleasant commercial class finds Gerry Bove at the files. Dolly Oldani types stencils for the "Sodalite" (the Sodality paper). Gerry Moebs and Rose Marie Krause prepare to "run off" the first page.

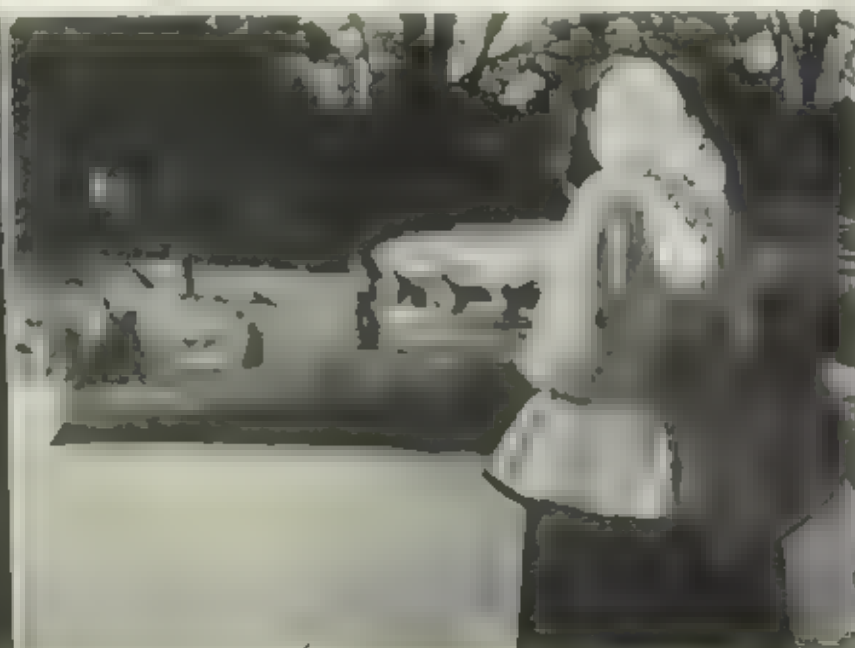

Professor Bill Lawicki dictates to his private secretary, Joan Eschrich. Carol Byle, with the use of the new 24-inch carriage typewriter, rewrites a corrected statement.

Among the future accountants we find Carol Ann Couwlier, Shirley Werthman (front), Chuck Eovaldi, and Dennis Harper engrossed in their work.

Highlight of the Biology Class is the visit to Detroit's Zoo.

"The Chair recognizes Miss Bielski," says President Bill Zoli . . . Jean Bishop, Betty Wilhelm, Mary Ann Lee, Tim Foley, Chuckie Bolde, Dick Staszak, Al Lehner analyze the motion put forth during the Parliamentary Law course while Barbara McDonald takes notes.

Presidential elections bring St. Anthony Seniors to the polls. Receiving their ballots are Betty Torres, Mary Turco, Jeannette Pitcher, Mary Jane Mac Gregor, Barbara Turkal, Marilyn Morosco, Shirley Werthman and Gerry Usicki; Henry Kronner and Dick La Faive pass out ballots.

Counting votes is a complicated procedure as proved by Ed Klatt, Don Janowski, Joan Nalezty, Jack Lademan and Roger Klein (seated) . . . Joe Gloss, John Rossi and Ron Pettke open the ballots.

We nearly froze the day we went to Greenfield Village, but these boys are not warming up—the bottles are empty. Leonard Perrin, Paul Spatt, Ernie Kaschalk, George LaRaia, Tom Kreitmeyer, and Ronald Puwal are lined up in the tap room of "Ye Olde Inne."

Bet that's the only kind of a horse Mike Faba could ride. Even then, Tom Kreitmeyer has to hold old Dobbin while Mike mounts.

Home-nursing classes are practical and fun. Janet Cunnally keeps the record for nurses, Nina Pallazola and Joan Burke; the poor patient is Bernice Habel.

"Pontiac himself," says Marilyn Juif, "or is it?"

Top Row: B. Makowski, C. Meyers, M. Shubnell, J. Sylakowski, J. Kukowski, J. Lopicola, J. Lucido, M. McBride, M. Lieder, I. Sugzda, L. Klebba, L. Weatherly. Row 2. J. Berant, B. Lindemoen, P. Gladych, V. Fisher, J. Martino, H. Deneweth, E. Roth, J. McGregor, B. Schornak, L. Gogoleski, M. Nosotti. Row 3. M. R. Valente, M. A. Skurda, Y. VanAckere, S. Tavecchi, J. Brennan, J. Callanbro, R. Lulled by the very memory of Stephen Foster's music, Larry Pellegrini seems to have gone into a doze while stopping in the Greenfield Village replica of Foster's home. Catherine Thomas, Frances Stosiak, Betty Wilhelm and Ralph Dueweke are wide awake.

School assembly at attention when Brother Shuster speaks.

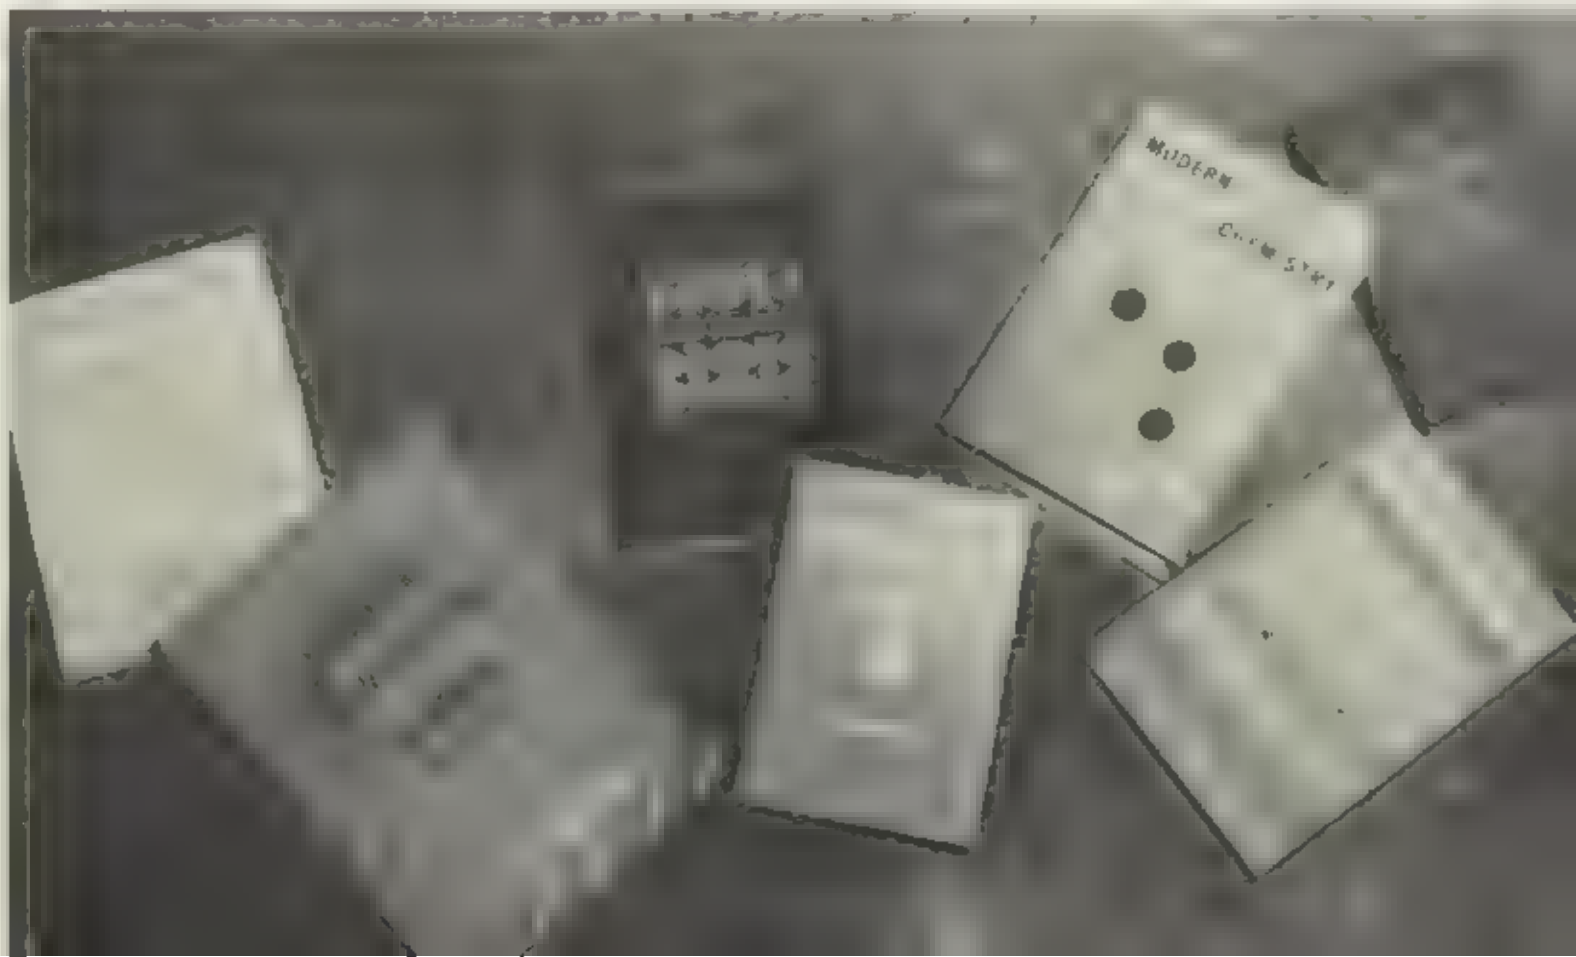

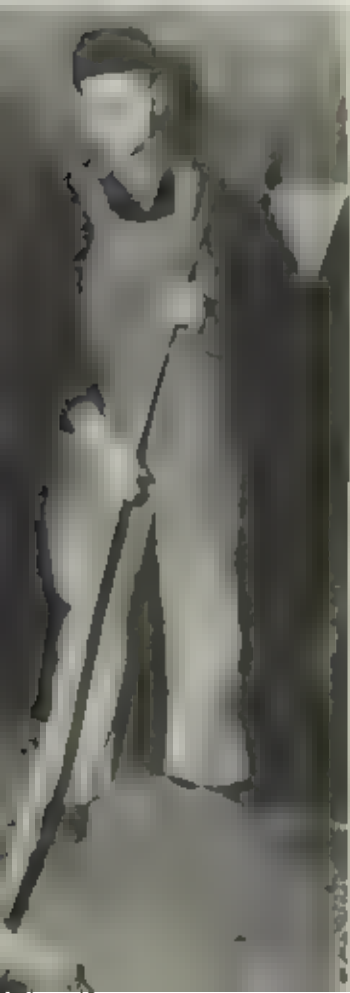

Future chemists, R. Pfrender, J. Dronzkowski, and L. Drake, aren't too enthusiastic about the odor of burning phosphorus.

All of us know Mr. Werner—the man who so faithfully does his best to keep the rooms and corridors of St. Anthony High School neat and clean.

Sodality of Our Lady

Senior-Junior Night

The Senior Sodality program this year was ably directed by Joseph Gloss, Prefect, Shirley Kuhn, Vice Prefect, Dan Jankowski, Treasurer, and Betty Wilson, Secretary.

One of the more popular projects of the year is the Easter Egg Drive for the Little Sisters of the Poor. Here, a group of Sodalitys, Connie Nowosielski, Marilyn Spanski, Kay Drake, Art Bak, Dan Jankowski, Bob Swaish, and Bob Bayne, aid the Sisters in loading the fragile contents (scientifically) in the Sister's truck. After all, they are to be whole and not scrambled!

Aside from catering to the spiritual wants of the students, the Sodality also provides for the social aspect of life. Struggling to keep the "little one", Mike Faba, up and around at the skating party are muscle men (?) John Rossi and Joe Gloss.

With Christmas just around the corner, Marilyn Spanski, Kay Drake, and Carolyn Varisto set up the annual Christmas tree and crib.

No meeting, Sodality, C. S. M. C., or general assembly is complete without Ralph Dueweke and "mike."

C. S. M. C.

One of the prized offices of the school is the wearing of the royal regalia, that of the white robes of the president of the Anthonader Mission Unit. To the right, is the showing of the officers as they return from the installation ceremony. The President, Leo Schmidt, proudly leads the new officers and chairmen.

J. Urbani, B. Sharer, J. Jaworski, B. Miller, J. Eklund, I. Starr, L. Romps, K. Oswald, I. Aquino, J. Spatt, R. Allegrati, P. Bucci, E. Loewe, B. Zoli.

In order to keep the students mission conscious, the bulletin committee displays prayer reminders on the various classroom doors. Here M. A. Brown and C. Boehl are making their selection.

Cancelled stamps are not a novelty in the school, but to see 6-foot John Sobieski measuring himself alongside the sacks of stamps he managed to cart to school is something.

Used Christmas cards are put to good use. In this picture we see active crusaders M. Zimmerman, D. Allegrati, J. Pranger, G. Grundirks, and B. Brzykcy cutting them into holy pictures for distribution in the mission field.

Sacrificing their time after school, B. Miller, M. Gaynor, S. Quinn, R. Holden, and E. Vernier are shown making cord rosaries, another project for foreign missions.

Mr. J. Kilian, S. J., entertained and instructed us with his stories of the missions in India. Here we see some of the students, R. Holden, J. Jaworski, L. Gogowski, and J. Eklund, wearing authentic Hindu and Moslem costumes.

Holy Name

"Shall we or shall we not subscribe to the Extension magazine for the classrooms," asks Bob Boertman, President (seated center), of Jerry Jaworski, Vice President, John Kolpasky, Treasurer, and Jerry Fischer, Secretary.

Collecting toys for the orphans is an annual Holy Name project. This year Don Novak, Dennis Harper and Tony Formicola got a special "kick" out of delivering the toys themselves.

Rev. Urban Hoorman, C.P.P.S., and Rev. Carl Longanbach, C.P.P.S., conducted the annual retreat at the close of the first semester.

Marilyn Morosco, Lorraine Pomainville, Charlene Bolde, Kathleen Smith, Mary Jane MacGregor, and Shirley Kuhn are packing for delivery to the Sisters, the students' donations to the Club-sponsored Pantry Shower.

The Future Nurses' Club

The annual Pantry Shower for the sisters is not the only project of the Future Nurses' Club. Under the direction of Sister Mary Anne, the future nurses have sent alphabet books to shut-in children at Christmas, visited the Veterans for Easter, rolled bandages and supplied sample medicines for the foreign missions. Not only do these girls help others but they also help themselves by preparing for their chosen profession as "women in white." They have visited hospitals on "Open House" days, and read pamphlets to help master details of their future jobs.

"Capping" the President, Mary Jane MacGregor, is Treasurer, Kathleen Smith. Marilyn Morosco, Secretary, looks on enviously.

Joe Gloss, Chuck Lumpkin, Mary Joan Codd, Don Janowski,
Sue Walter, and Dolly Oldani

The Antholite Staff

"Was glue ever made that didn't smear and stick all over your fingers! Rubber cement or not—it's plain goo-ey!" This is just one of the complaints voiced by members of the ANTHOLITE staff as they end a long after-school session with a glue pot, paste board and photographs.

Mary Joan Codd and Don Janowski were chosen as co-editors and together with Sister M. Jane Frances formed the nucleus for the staff. Selections from the many eager volunteers finally resulted in Joe Gloss and Chuck Lumpkin in charge of sports; cropping pictures, identifications and the job of writing captions are just a few of the tasks carried on by the assistant editors, Sue Walter and Dolores Oldani.

Marlene Dolesky, Bernice Habbel and Geraldine Bove helped with the typing.

Under the direction of Sister M. Gilbertine, Dick Ravetta, Art Bak, and Bob Bane took care of developing, printing, reducing, etc; . . . all the jobs, little and big, tied up with the work in the dark room.

Pictures—so very important in our yearbook—were shot mainly by Don Sansoterra and Dick Lesmeister.

Joanne Kamieniecki, Dianne Wichtman, (seated) Lorna Venditty, Bill Lawicki, and Ralph Dueweke, (standing) with Sister M. Helen guiding them through the alphabetical and financial shoals, handled the business end of the '53 Antholite.

"A" Club

Officers: Seated; Tom Kreitmeyer, President; Chuck Lumpkin, Treasurer; Standing: Dick LaFaive, Vice President; Joe Gloss, Secretary; and Bud DiMaggio, Sergeant-at-Arms. They are busy with last-minute plans for the dance.

Highlights of the "A" Club program this year were the formal dance and banquet for the East Side Champs.

The Prelude Staff

Standing: Cynthia Prybys, Loretta Brunk, Elizabeth Wilson, Andrew Fulgenzi, Gerald Provencher.

On this tenth anniversary of the PRELUDE, it is with pleasure that we look back at the many printed copies which have come off the press living up to the name which the Rev. Daniel A. Lord, S.J. gave it years ago.

Under the direction of Sister Mary Benedette, the PRELUDE staff of '53 has come up with sparkling human interest stories, inspiring editorials and vivid features. The PRELUDE keeps its finger on the school's heart beat, writes what it feels, rewrites it and finally submits it for publication.

Awarded the first class honor rating by both the National Scholastic Press Association and the Quill and Scroll, and the all-Catholic rating by the Catholic Scholastic Press Association, the PRELUDE has done an excellent job all around of keeping the students socially, mentally and religiously informed.

The PRELUDE—"Prelude to the serious things to be done for God and Country . . ."

Morgan Le Fay (Pat Kolley) and Merlin (Dan Jankowski) plot the overthrow of King Arthur. Sir Sagrumer (Dick Allegrati) stands stoically by while Sir Launcelot (Tom Fulgenzi) "listens in."

Make-up time is messy, but fun for Jerry Pranger and Nancy Brennan, Loretta Brunk and Dick Allegrati, Liz Wilson and John Jacobs, Therese Magnoli and Pat Kolley.

Christmas Program

With a Christmas-card tableau theme, the school program, under the joint direction of Sister Paul Michael and Sister Mary Carl, presented a varied and lovely program to an appreciative audience.

The Sharer twins were quite at home with Santa Claus (Don Genord) — in fact, they stole the show!

Guess who? Jackie Ouellette makes a good-looking and long-suffering snowman.

St. Anthony 19 St. Catherine 7

St. Anthony, with an inexperienced team, opened the "52" season with a hard-fought win over their old rivals, St. Catherine. At the end of the game, the statistics showed that Roy Best, John Wise, and Toni Stefani had scored the "T.D.'s" with Dan Currie making one conversion. For another year, the "derby" remains at St. Anthony.

St. Anthony 7 St. Leo 7

With three star players out because of injuries, St. Anthony was held to a 7-7 by underdog St. Leo. In 80 degrees temperature, Quarterback Bud DiMaggio paved the way for a 35 yard touchdown run by Toni Stefani; Best ran the extra point.

St. Anthony 6 St. Joseph 14

In the first League game of the season, St. Anthony, still handicapped with injuries, met St. Joe's. The Blue Jays scored quickly. In the third period the Teutons marked up their only "T.D." on a pass from Dick LaFaive to Stefani. It was again a "tooth and nail" game with Co-Captain Roger Klein leading the defensive squad.

St. Anthony 27 St. Ladislaus 14

The Teutons bounced back into the win column with a strong aerial attack. Stefani and Best opened the first period with 2 touchdowns. Dick Gajeski helped the cause along by intercepting a pass and scampering for a 50 yard return. Jerry Neaton tallied on a line plunge in the third period to sew up the game.

St. Anthony 25 De LaSalle 19

Trying for their second win, St. Anthony locked horns with De LaSalle. The first half was a see-saw battle with the Pilots ahead 19-13; Dick Fedelem and Larry Kennedy catching two touchdown passes. With Stefani scoring two "T.D.'s" on a long pass and a short-end run in the second half, the Teutons pulled the game out of the fire and began to look toward the East Side Crown.

In a do-or-die attempt for the East Side Title, the Teutons met Servite at Jayne Field. Servite tied the score 6-6 after Stefani had tallied in the first period. Then in a cloud of dust the team hammered out a touchdown to break the tie with Dick LaFaive scoring his first "T.D." of the season. Co-Captain Charlie Janssen and center Dan Currie were outstanding on defense.

St. Anthony 44 St. Stanislaus 7

In capturing the East Side Pennant, St. Anthony emptied the bench as LeFaive, Abood, Kennedy, Fedelem, Best, Wise, and Neaton scored once each with Currie adding 2 extra points. The Teutons led 26-0 at half-time and were never in danger.

SOUP BOWL

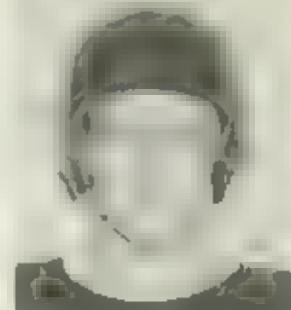

St. Anthony 20 St. Mary of Redford 27

In the Catholic City Championship game at U. of D. Stadium, St. Anthony gave the Rustics pre-game favorite a scare, at their consecutive seventeen-game-winning streak.

The Teutons opened the scoring in the 1st quarter with Don Abood going 20 yards around end for a "T.D." Currie converted, making the score 7-0. St. Mary scored twice on two fumbles in the second quarter and again on the opening kickoff of the second half.

Fighting back for the "Red-and-White," Abood tallied for another six pointer in a 61 yard run. On a partially blocked punt, the Rustics scored their winning marker of the game.

In a strong finish, St. Anthony pushed across a touchdown in the final seconds with LaFaive on a sneak through center and Currie added the extra point, but the game ended with the Teutons 7 points from Briggs Stadium and the Goodfellow Championship.

Tony Stefani

Tony Stefani, St. Anthony's star back, rips through the center of the big De LaSalle line for a short gain—with a needy block from Roy Best.

Tony Stefani is stopped after a short gain by two St. Mary's players.

Coach John Shada and the Defensive squad take a rest while the Offensive team battles for the lead.

Players from St. Mary's and St. Anthony's congratulate each other on the fine game in which St. Mary's won 27-20.

Just after a fumble, Dick LaFaive talks over tactics with John Shada. With a dozen well-executed passes, Dick LaFaive made certain St. Anthony's victory over De La-Salle 25-19.

Speedster Don Abood skirts around right end for a fifty-five yard touchdown against Redford St. Mary's in the Soup Bowl game.

After scoring the first touchdown, Quarterback Dick LaFaive and the Offensive players take a rest. The Defensive team now receives a little of the action.

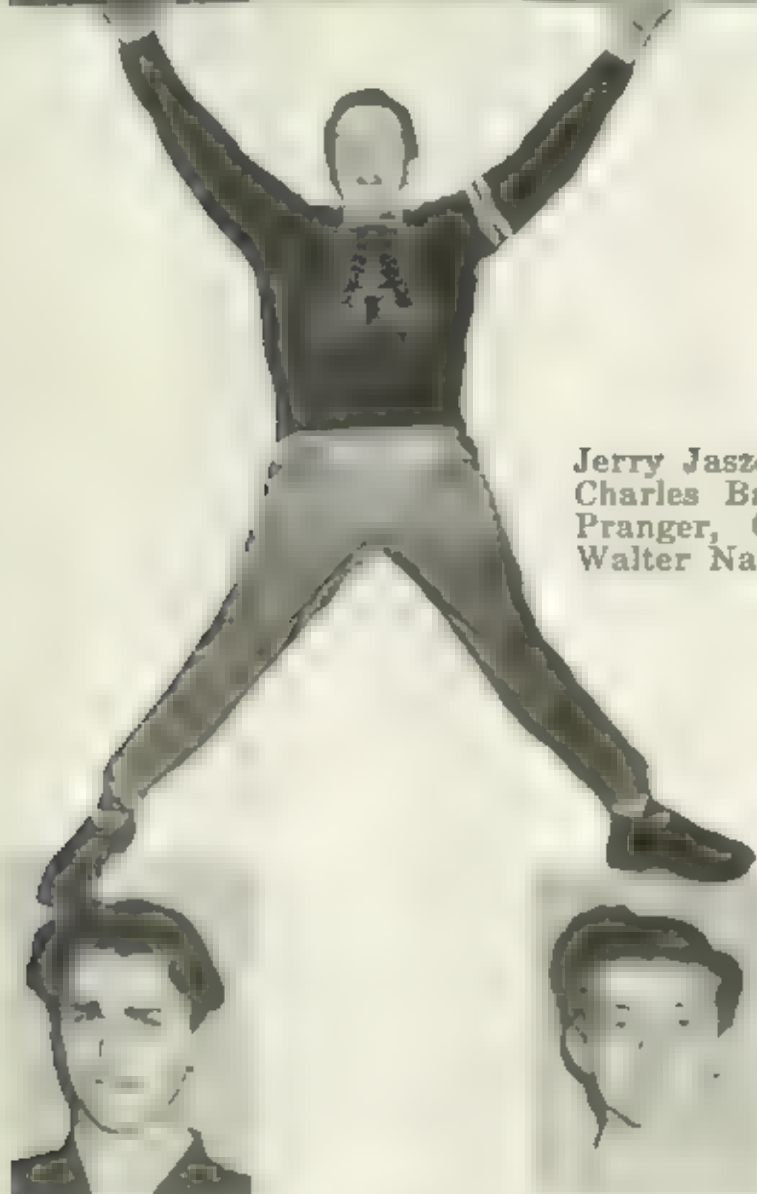

After rolling up forty-four points, St. Anthony's players take a breather and let their subs feast on St. Stanislaus—a gallant team.

ST. ANTHONY vs. ST. STANISLAUS

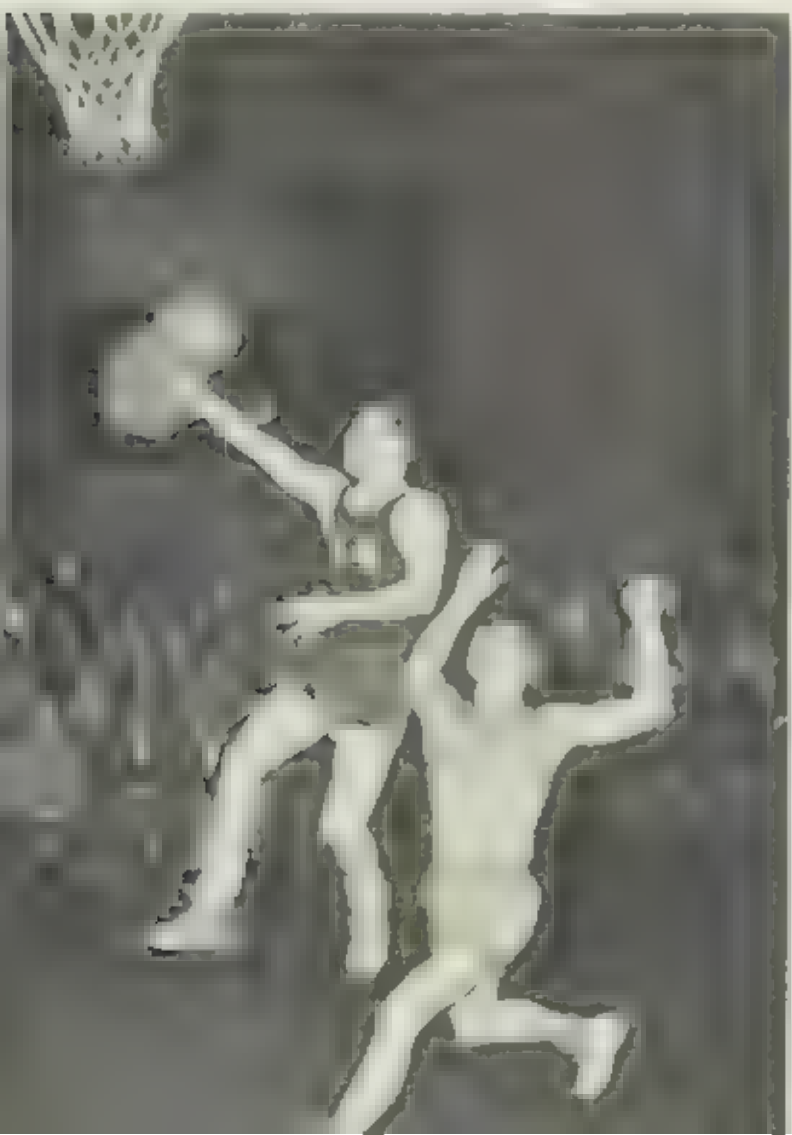

The end of the court season finished on a sour note as the Broncos squeezed on top of a close 34-32 decision.

TOURNAMENT

During the Christmas Holidays the St. Anthony cagers accepted the invitation to a four day basketball tournament held in Alpena. Playing the role of darkhorse, the Teutons made short work of defeating Detroit Lutheran 59-26 and Detroit Servite 49-45 to enter the finals. A decided underdog against Alpena Catholic Central, the Red and White played their hearts out only to be vanquished by a score of 49-45. But the upstate trip was not in vain for a well-deserved runnerup position and beautiful trophy was brought back.

ST. ANTHONY vs. DE LASALLE

The battle for first place left our Teutons out in the cold with a 58-41 dribbling by a powerful De LaSalle five.

ST. ANTHONY vs. ST. JOSEPH

Beginning the season on the right foot, our Teutons gained an impressive 18-32 victory over the Blue Jays.

ST. ANTHONY vs. ST. LADISLAUS

Overtime was needed to carve a well-earned 28-24 win out of the tough Sharp-shooters from St. Lads.

ST. ANTHONY vs. SERVITE

Sailing smoothly in the Red and White continued their winning streak by a 53-14 score over Servite.

ST. ANTHONY vs. DE LASALLE

A 1-31 set back from the towering Phots left St. Anthony with their first defeat of the campaign.

ST. ANTHONY vs. STANISLAUS

Bouncing back out of the losers' stewed with a 62-46 trouncing over battling St. Stan's.

ST. ANTHONY vs. JOSEPH

Claiming their mastery over the Gratiot rivals by a 57-16 margin, the Teutons regained a tie for first.

ST. ANTHONY vs. LADISLAUS

The Greyhounds' setback in Anthonians their second defeat of the season in a hard-fought 58-50 tussle.

ST. ANTHONY vs. SERVITE

Moving into second place, St. Anthony's quartet downed speedy Servite High with a 55-36 beating.

Teutons v. St. Lad's: Good work, Dan Allen—two more points for us!

Teutons vs. St. Lad's: Tony Stefani in a beautiful hook-shot that added two more points to St. Anthony's score.

Teutons vs. St. Stan's: Everybody's out for that ball, but something tells us Currie'll get it.

Girls' Basketball

Business managers, Liz Wilson and Therese Magnoli, carry the responsibility for score keeping, timing, and announcing the games.

The only Senior on the team is Mary Rivard, who has played three years for the Teutonettes—two years on varsity. This year's game with Nativ-ity rates as her best.

Mary Lou Gentry and Carole Kirouac reach high for the ball as Miss Kaitz directs the play.

Summary of Girls' Games

The Teutonettes opened the regular season by overcoming Annunciation 39-19. Their next victim, St. Cyril, bowed to the St. Tony sextet 25-7. Nativity, their next and toughest rival, edged the Cagerettes out of a third victory, 20-20. The Teutonettes overtook their next three league competitors, downing St. Charles 31-8, St. Catherine 42-5, and St. Thomas 43-12. The girls scored 200 points compared with their opponents 74 points, which shows both offensive and defensive positions were ably covered.

The girls finished in second place in the league thereby placing them in the play-offs. The Teutonettes continued their winning streak by defeating Felician Academy 27-16. St. Florian, their next victim, bowed by a score of 25-22. St. Paul then downed St. Anthony by the score of 21-19, St. Paul scoring the winning basket in the last four seconds of the game. As there was a two-game knockout in the play-offs, the Cagerettes fought still harder and conquered St. Theresa 32-37 and St. Stanislaus 18-10. The girls, getting another chance at St. Paul, scored a 25-23 victory.

The girls then entered the St. David Invitational Tournament to complete their season. The girls enjoyed one of the most successful seasons in the history of St. Anthony Girls Team. High scores for the entire season were Mary Lou Gentry with 210 points, Carole Kirouac with 116 points, Rita Holden with 14 points, Pat Labiak with 23 and Janice Kock with 8.

what next?

It's a pretty important decision, young lady — choosing the right job. You'll want to work in pleasant surroundings — in light and airy offices with modern equipment.

And now that you're out of school, you'll expect to meet new friends where you work — young people you'll like and with whom you can enjoy your leisure time. (And how about a vacation with pay?)

Then there's the matter of a paycheck—it'll be nice to count on a steady income, a salary that's good from the start and keeps getting better with regular increases.

There's a job like this waiting for you at the telephone company!

You might want to be a telephone operator or a teller, a cashier or a clerk — those are just some of the many interesting jobs Michigan Bell has for bright young high school graduates like yourself. And there's a chance to advance in all of them.

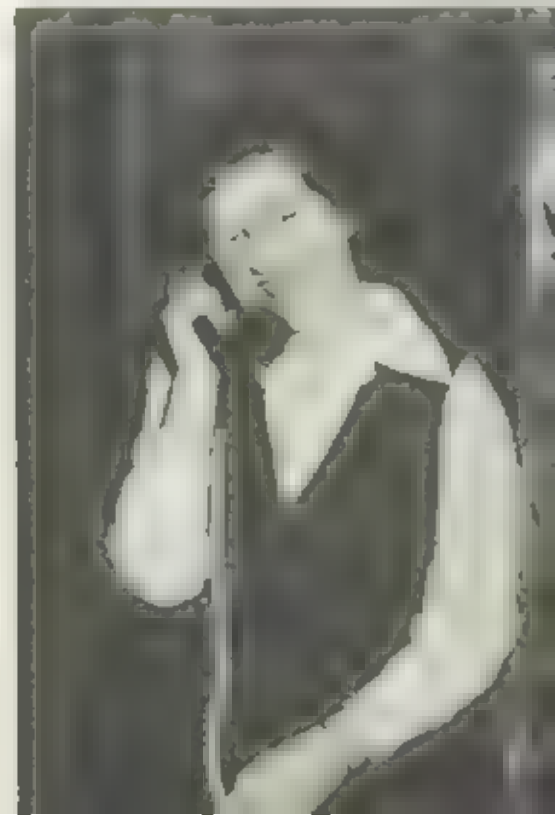

You don't need experience to get a telephone job, and you'll earn a good salary, even while you're learning.

What next? Why not visit Michigan Bell's Employment Office? We'll be looking for you!
